MRS. BAKER TAKES IT COOLLY

SAYS SHE GOT HER BAD CHECKS IN GOOD FAITH FROM A MAN.

Then Says She Knew They Were Bad, but Hoped to Deposit for Them in Time
-Has Settled With Siegel-Cooper.

Mrs. Eugenia Adelaide Baker, whose use of beauty and wit as a means to provide the necessaries of life at the expense of other people was ended on Wednesday by her arrest for laying down bad checks remained something of a mystery yester day to the police authorities. Just what she has been up to they do not fully know. Detectives Cuff and Rynders, who arrested her, are inclined to believe that she has been acting as the agent of a gang of swindlers, arguing that the checks she has passed had been drawn by men, not by her, as the handwriting clearly showed. Capt. Titus, however, thinks that Mrs. Baker has been engaged rather in the work of check-kiting, or a game of robbing Peter to pay Paul, than in any deliberate scheme live by check forgery or uttering fraudulent checks.

Having spent the night in the Mercer street station, Mrs. Baker was taken to General Sessions yesterday morning and arraigned befrore Judge MacMahon on the two charges of passing a worthless check for $100 on the Siegei-Cooper Company in September, and giving two other worthless checks to the Misses Bronn, real estate agents, last Monday. Judge MacMahon remanded her to the Tombs for trial. Her mother, Mrs. Frederick Edwards of Glen Rock, N. J., saw her in the detectives' office at the Criminal Courts building. Both women were agitated at their meeting, but when they separated before the daughter was taken to prison each seemed to be calm, almost cold, and Detective-Sergeant Cuff. who has had large experience, expressed the belief that the young roman had been in similar difficulties often enough before and that her mother was tired of being called to her rescue.

Two bench warrants were out for Mrs. Baker on the two indictments charging forgery and larceny growing out of her transaction with the Siegel-Cooper Comtransaction with the Siegel-Cooper Company, but Cuff and Rynders learned with surprise from Mrs. Baker and her mother vesterday that the Siegel-Cooper matter had been settled. The woman said that the company's lawyer, Samuel I, Ferguson, and an associate, Gabriel Hess, had settled with them upon the payment of $200 and that Mrs. Edwards held the receipt. Detective Cuff said that according to the women's story $50 had been demanded for fees, "$35 or the District Attorney and $15 for me," as the agent who carried on the negotiations for a settlement put it.

Mr. Ferguson acknowledged yesterday that the Siegel-Cooper claim had been paid, and said that the company had a perfect right to effect a settlement so long as they did not promise to stop prosecution, and no promise not to prosecute had been made. Mrs. Edwards is to go to the District Attorney's office to-day in company with Henry L. Mead, a friend, who is in a rallroad office on Broadway, to tell the District Attorney how the settlement was made and to show the receipt.

Mrs. Baker has admitted, so Capt. Titus says, that she knew the checks she gave to the Misses Bronn were not good, but declared that she had expected to be able to make them good before they got around to the bank. According to the woman's story yesterday, though, as Cuff and Rynders tell it, she professed to have thought the checks good, having come to her from a man whose checks had always before proved good. She says that he was one J. W. Sterling of Yonkers, buf she failed to tell enough about "Mr. Sterling" to enable the detectives to find him. Among her papers the detectives found two telegrams, one sent from the Hotel Imperial and signed "Jim," telling her that "Bradley" had 'phoned him that he could not go to Philadelphia, so he (Jim) would go there and settle up. "Jim 'told her to "be a good girl." The other despatch was signed "P. Bradley" and said that the sender was called out of town and was sorry that he couldn't join her. The officers found also a candy store memorandum slip pany, but Cuff and Rynders learned with

The officers found also a candy store memorandum slip upon which was written, "Ruth A. Baker, Scituate, Mass.." and also "M. G. Baker, 15 Long Wharf." Long Wharf is a Boston address. The Boston police want Mrs. Baker for giving a bogus check for $100 to her husband's father, a reputable fish and oyster dealer of that city, and for similar frauds upon Boston furniture dealers. The Ridgewood police also want the young woman. Among the city complainants to Capt. Titus have been a landlady of 67 West Thirty-eighth street, who says she lost $62 by Mrs. Baker, and Lawyer Thomas G Shearman, who got two checks, one for $100 and one for $50.

The woman's husband is said to be Simeon Baker, who was a clerk in the Allenhurst

Baker, who was a clerk in the Allenhurst Inn, N. J., before it was burned last sum-mer, and was also employed in a hotel at Roxbury, Mass.

at Roxbury, Mass.

Boston, Oct. 31.—M. G. Baker at 15 Long Wharf is Mrs. Eugenia Adelaide Baker's father-in-law. He said to-day that his daughter-in-law had forged his name repeatedly and that he had taken up her paper until he could afford to do so no longer. Her conduct was disgraceful, he said, and he was tired of trying to protect her. Mr. Baker said that his son was madly infatuated with the woman and that she had lured him into marriage. His son, he said, had been employed in New York at the Hotel Empire. The Empire is owned by W. Johnson Quinn, who also ran the Allenhurst Inn at Allenhurst, N. J.

MUST LET NEGRO CLUB WOMEN IN.

Mrs. Hartshorn Says Color Line Can Have No Place in General Federation. ORANGE, N. J., Oct. 31.-Club women, representing ninety-five federated clubs onvened in Trinity Congregational Church, East Orange, to day at the annual meeting of the State Federation of Women's clubs, organized in Orange several days ago. Mrs. Stewart Hartshorn, President of the ederation, took a strong stand in her address against the drawing of the color to by the General Federation.

"The General Federation," she said, was mount to be not only national, but demotional; if it remains an international body the race question can have no piace in it. It should remain as it was organized on a broad democratic basis, where wage estrers, profussional women, and women of ichare regardless of nationality or race, night must as women, for the time being with social distinctions laid aside

ILIS MOST OUT ON BALL duties highless fixes 61,500 as the Amount He Must trice other for the resease of John Most in $1,500 ball was made yesterday by Junties MacLean of the Supreme Court, pendhig the appear from the judgment of figur-Sensous our winter Most manuscriters of to " your in just for a publication in the Frethell the time of the shooting of President States dustice MacLean had granted of a contribute of remountate doubt of a building of the conviction food had the correction time to the penitentiary auditory that the appeal will be heard theatic of James F. Mareti's Mother-tief.am.

des Margaret Figur, mother-in-law of Street F. March. Republican leader in the * : Assembly district, died yesterday or summer home in Lowville, Lewis many, b. Y. principally through grief we have not ber daughter. Mrs. Marsh, the deel resoulty. Mrs. Flyan was widely and respected in the first Assembly there. The tucky will be brought here Cartocortag and old by Patrick's Cathedral.

NURSE CHARGED WITH MURDER. Mes Toppan Pleads Not Guilty to Polso

ing Mrs. Gibbs BARNSTABLE, Mass., Oct. 31.—Miss Jane Toppan was arraigned in the West Bristol District Court here this morning before Judge Swift, charged with the murder of Mrs. Mary B. Gibbs, who died on Aug. 9 last at Cataumet. Miss Toppan pleaded not guilty. At the request of the Government the case was continued until Friday, Nov. 8. State Detective S. F. Whitney represented the Government. Miss Toppar had no counsel. She said she had engaged Edward F. Dodge of Boston.

Miss Toppan was the trained nurse who attended Mrs. Gibbs. Although the coincidences surrounding the deaths of four persons in one family caused the investiga-tion which has resulted in Miss Toppan's arrest, she was arraigned upon only one count. It was learned here this morning that there was at least one missing link in the Government's chain of evidence against Miss Toppan. It has been impossible for the Government to ascertain that Miss Toppan purchased at any place or time any arsenic, which poison Prof. Wood says he found in the stomach of Mrs. Gibbs. It is also learned that the Government will not attempt to show that Miss Toppan was responsible for the death of Mrs. Gordon or the other members of the Davis family, because it is asserted that it could not be shown that she had the exclusive be shown that she had the exclusive opportunity of administering the poison which, it is alleged, caused the deaths.

There was a great change in Miss Toppan's appearance this morning, as compared with that at the time of her arrival at Barnstable yesterday afternoon. Then she was cheerful, animated and in good spirits. She passed a very restless night and this morning was on the verge of collapse. Miss Toppan was asked this morning if she had anything to say and she replied:

"I'm innocent." She added that there was nothing she could say until she had consulted with her counsel. She said she knew nothing of the cause of the death of Mrs. Globs or of any of the other members of the family.

of the family of the family.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Harry Gordon, husband of the sister of Mrs. Mary Davis Gibbs, supposed to have been poisoned at Barnstable, Mass., refused to-day to give any opinion on the case. Mr. Gordon is the cashier of the Equitable Life Assurance Company.

Company.

"I have nothing to say now," he said.
"If there is a trial and I am summoned as a "If there is a trial and I am summoned as a witness I may be able to say a great deal, but at this time I prefer to say nothing."

"Is there anything in your mind that would warrant the arrest of Jane Toppan?"

"Well, Jane Toppan was the professional nurse who was at the bedside of every one of the four persons who died. I have known her since I was a child. Her home was in Lowell, Mase., but for a long time she boarded in Cambridge. I have received no notice of the arrest save that given me by the newspaper reporters."

CAN'T FIND THOMAS POTTER. Disappears and Creditors Get Attachments and Writs.

Deputy Sheriff Rinn has received an attachment against Thomas Potter, carpenter and builder at Eighty-sixth street and Amsterdam avenue, for $2,700, in favor of the Montgomery Door and Box Company of Buffalo.

Albert B. Vorhis, agent for the company here alleges that Mr. Potter, who has been erecting as contractor the buildings at the southwest corner of Amsterdam avenue and Eighty-sixth street, disappeared from the city last Friday, leaving no repre-sentative in charge of the buildings, which are unfinished, and that the architects, have been compelled to take personal charge of the buildings on behalf of the

Mr. Potter is heavily indebted to others Mr. Potter is heavily indected to others besides the attaching creditor. Mr. Vorhis has been unable to learn where he is, but says that a report is current that he is somewhere in New England. Mechanics' liens to the amount of $6,357 have been filed against the job. The Sheriff served the attachment on three banks.

It was said at the apartment house at 408 St. Nicholas avenue, where Potter lived, that Potter's family were in the country and that he had left the house Saturday

SUSPENDER JACK'S WIFE WINS. Decree of Separation Against Reosevelt's Cowbey Policeman.

A decree of separation against John C. McGee, a policeman known as "Suspender Jack," in favor of Alexandria McGee was granted by Justice Scott of the Supreme Court yesterday.

McGee was a cowboy in the West when he met Theodore Roosevelt, now President. When Mr. Roosevelt became Police Commissioner he had McGee appointed on the force and assigned to the mounted squad. He is about 6 feet 2 inches tall and his wife

He is about 5 feet 2 inches tan and his who is about 5 feet 2.

Mrs. McGee charged her husband with striking her and pulling her about by the hair. She said he owned his horse and buggy and used to drive another woman about. McGee denied his wife's allegations are that she is a common scold, and asserted that she is a common scold, who threw knives and dishes at him and swore like a trooper.

About four years ago, he said, his wife confessed that she had been intimate with another man before marriage. He wrote down the confession on horseback, he said, and had his wife sign it. She denied the statement and said she had not signed it. Justice Scott said he could not give credence to the testimony of the policeman

NEVINS SUES SHEVLIN.

Wants $50,000 for Being Accused of "Testifying Like a Thief.

Thomas F Nevins, formerly Chief of the Fire Department in Brooklyn and a member of the defunct brokerage firm of G. Edward Graff & Co., has begun suit in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn against James Shevlin, the chief lieutenant of Born McLaughlin, for $50,000 damages for slander The suit is a sequel to the quarrel over the alleged pool agreement said to have been entered into by Shevlin and Ex-Senator John McCarty with the brokerage firm Novins testified that Shevlin told him to get the pool contract and burn it up. Shevila gave out an interview the following day in which he said that Nevins toethed like a thiof and he saw the etripostaring him in the face.

Nevine declares that he has suffered

Nevine declares that he had entered mental angular and moral shares and had been of many of his friends and associates through the statements of Shevin. The papers were served upon Shevin yesterday He declared to make any statement and will take advantage of the twenty slave allowed light by law to answer the complaint.

Pliepinant Searly Mills His Marger.

BUFFALO, Out. 21. Jumbo II., said to he the largest elephant is captivity, incame furious this morning in his quarters of the Exposition grounds and marry affect tak kneper, Henry Malien. The animal of the hosper, Henry Millen. The amiron of ways is kept tightly channed and while blades was at work in the elephant's chain the beast actual him in his count and buried him to the floor. The elephant true was always to transpic on the hosper, tending consists into the transpic on the hosper, tending consists intoglight, although some of the etaken were latiked to which they were facilities to which they were facilities to which they were facilities of gare him so the elephant instact him with his trans. Mallon as now in the finergenery floorant, with four facilities in the finergenery floorant, with four facilities in the finergenery floorant, with four facilities about the facilities and according to the will recover.

To Bent or For Sale.

Sunday, has a Tra sets will publish at article of general interest to those who tent dwelling houses, as well as to those who have these properties for sale -Adv.

MR. REDMOND'S PARTY IS HERE

VISITING IRISHMEN HOPE TO RAISE FUNDS IN AMERICA.

They Will Make a Tour of the Country Lecturing on Conditions in Ireland, and Organizing Branches of the United Irish League - Talk With Mr. Redmond.

John E. Redmond, leader of the United Irish League and of the Irish Nationalist party in the British Parliament, arrived yesterday on the Majestic. With Mr. Redmond came Patrick McHugh and Thomas O'Donnell, likewise Nationalist Members of Parliament, together with Mrs. Red-mond, John E Redmond's wife, and Mrs. Dalton, the sister-in-law of Willie Redmond John E. Redmond's brother. Mr. Redmond is Member of Parliament for Waterford city, Mr. McHugh for Sligo, and Mr. O'Donnell for Leitrim. All are staying at the Hoffman House, where they will remain until the latter part of next week, when they will start on their tour through the country for the purpose of organizing branches of the United Irish League. Gen. James R. O'Bierne, Robert O'Flaherty, John O'Callaghan and T. St. John Gaffney went down to Quarantine on Wednesday night in the hope that the Majestic would come up the bay, but they were not able to board her until the doctor's boat went off yesterday noon. These gentlemen formed a committee representing a number of Irish societies in this city and they came up on the steamship with Mr. Redmond and his party to the dock,

Mr. Redmond and his party to the dock, where they were met by about 250 other representatives of Irish organizations in New York and half a dozen other cities. Concerning the object of his visit here Mr. Redmond said:

"We have come with the purpose of organizing branches of the United Irish League in as many places in this country as possible. There are in Ireland 1,200 branches of the league, while here there are now about a dozen—just a nucleus from which to start. I hope to go as far West as California, but whether that will be possible it is hard now to say. You see our time here is limited. We are going to sail for home on Dec. 11 and I am afraid it will be a little difficult to crowd a trip across the continent into that short time. However, we are now trying to arrange

Are money by the collection of dues and in other ways to maintain Irish Members of Parliament in a fitting way in London, as Parliament members draw no pay for their services. It is the purpose of the visitors also in their lectures to make clear to their hearers the exact condition of Irish affairs and the necessity of so developing the manufactures and other veloping the manufactures and other industries in Ireland as to attach the people to the soil, check the tide of emigration and, if possible, to turn the Irishmen who now are abroad homeward to the old sod.

Mr. Redmond will speak first in this city at Carnegie Hall at a meeting at which Mr. Redmond will speak first in this city at Carnegie Hall at a meeting at which Bourke Cockran was to have presided, but owing to Mr. Cockran's accident there is little chance that he will be able to be present. On Wednesday evening next there will be a banquet to Mr. O'Donnell, given by the Gaelic Society, and on Thursday evening there will be a banquet to day evening there will be a banquet to Mr. McHugh, given by the Sligo and Leitrim men. At both banquets Mr. Redmond will be present. A banquet will be ten-dered to him at some date yet to be fixed.

WHERE MILLER MONEY WENT. Col. Bob Ammon and His Wife Throw Some Light on This Question.

Col. Bob Ammon, counsel for 520-percent. Miller of the Franklin Syndicate, was called upon yesterday to testify in proceedings brought by Assignee Hayes Seymour Johnson & Co., into which firm Ammon put money alleged to have been part of the Franklin Syndicate proceeds. The firm failed last May. assignee of the Franklin Syndicate is now suing the assignee of the brokerage firm to recover money which he alleges came from Miller's concern, and it is in an effort to bring out the facts in regard to this money that Mr. Haves got an order from the Supreme Court to bring the proceedings before Referee John A. Straley. Mrs. Ammon, who is a middle-aged woman, sat beside her husband during the proceedings yesterday when she was not herself a witness.

Ammon admitted that in December, 1899, he had given Seymour Johnson & Co. $10,000 belonging to Miller. Ammon was asked if he did not draw a check for $100,000 on Wells, Fargo & Co. in favor of said that he thought there was an exchange of checks, and he got a note for the remaining $40,000. He exhibited this not and others for sums making up $140,000, the amount the firm got from Ammon

Ammon admitted that there had been a meeting at his house on May 27, just before the firm failed at which Johnson made a demand for money. "Johnson," he said, "said he wanted more money. I told him "said he wanted more morely. I told him that he had a slew of it already and he re-plied. "Well, the little fellow—meaning Goslin—has been drawing out money and scared us into believing that if we told you you would shoot us." Ammon as he said this looked at Goslin and in an angry tone said: "I want to add right here, that if it has been testified that t here that if it has been testified that wife ever said she would shoot the my wife ever rand whole crowd that statement is not true Goslin had hinted at this in his testimony Mrs. Ammon testified that she never had any money in Wells, Fargo & Co's, but had signed checks on Wells, Fargo for her

"Whose money was it, then, you checked against?" was Mr. Miller's money, my husband

"Did he tell you that money in your name at Wells, Fargo's was Miller money?"
"He told me that $40,000 in bonds had been turned over to me and were in my same there. He said they were Miller's and that I should keep them in trust for him. Later, Mrs. Ammon said, the bonds were withdrawn and put in the First National Bank of States Island, where they remained for a short time. Then her bushand had her take them out again, as he said he wanted to put them into Seymour Johnis the Co's.

This you ever threaten to shoot any one you did not get some money tack?

You do May 28, the day of the failure, tid call at the office of the firm and get no a hab I gave to my bushased and he besided it is the First National Batis of the Island.

Caposition to floor on buturds; Europeio, Get. 31 Ideal wonther favors he closing slays of the Esposition, faturcy is to be furewell may, and every tody in lighth will go to the grounde. Among the affinctions will be a series of events to the stantium including a chain lattle leaves on the lightness and the regulate from Fart Forter. Most of the user riuning for offer will take the opportunity to class the converse to the votests on flaturing.

Harts of Mrs. Wastery Arrives.

TWO WOMEN CLAIMED ESTATE. GEN. MASO ISSUES MANIFESTO. Wife Loses and "My Beloved Wife Virginia" Gets McMaster's $100,000. The contest of the will of Robert McMaster, who left an estate said to amount to $100,000, was on before Surrogate Thomas resterday. The money was claimed by two women. His will said he left his entire estate to "my beloved wife, Virginia, meaning my present wife with whom I now reside, and not my former wife, from whom have been legally separated. McMaster had married Mrs. Florence W. McMaster twenty-seven years ago. She is now a paralytic at 638 West 138th street, is now a paralytic at 688 West 138th street, She had separated from her husband about 1888 when charges of immorality were made against Virginia Mason, then a public school teacher, by Miss Grace Dodgé to the Board of Education. McMaster, whose name was mentioned in Miss Dodge scharges, and Miss Mason thereafter resided together, and although McMaster had not obtained a divorce from his wife Miss Meson has since been known as Mrs. Virginia McMaster.

Mrs. Florence McMaster testified that Miss Mason had urged her to get a divorce, offering to propure the evidence. Mrs. Florence McMaster and McMaster signed articles of separation.

Florence McMaster and McMaster signed articles of separation.

"Were you legally married to McMaster?" counsel asked of the proponent of the will.

"After Mr. McMaster and Mrs. McMaster legally separated," said the witness, "Mr. McMaster told me that I was his wife."

"Rather than permit my client to submit to the indignity of being questioned about her relations with Mr. McMaster," said counsel for the proponent, "I will make certain concessions. I will concede that after articles of separation were signed between Mr. McMaster and his wife, Florence, he and the proponent lived as hus-ence, he and the proponent lived as husband and wife."

McMaster had paid Mrs. Florence McMaster $20 a week up to his death. The court admitted the will to probate.

TROUBLESOME FIRE BOX 68. False Alarms Being Sent From It Under Cover of Train Racket Overhead.

Fire alarm box 68, at Frankfort and Pearl streets, has been rung for more false alarms in the last three months than all the other boxes in the lower part of the city. It is a dangerous location for fires, so an alarm sounded from box 68 is responded to by two battalion chiefs, three engines, two hook and ladder companies, a water tower and a fire patrol.

A false alarm was sounded from box 68 at 10 P. M. last Tuesday and Battalion Chief Cruger made an investigation. He found that five false alarms had been sounded from the box within the last three months, coming at intervals of less then three weeks. The firemen have never been able to find a trace of the man who turned in the slarms.

The alarm box is at the foot of the stairs leading to the Franklin Square elevated station. If opened when a train is passing overhead its alarm bell cannot be heard more than fifty feet away. The policeman on the beat never heard the alarm bell when the alarms were turned in and bell when the alarms were turned in and the chief thinks that the false alarm fiend took advantage of the noise made by the train to do his work. He may then have train to do his work. He may then have run up stairs to the station and escaped.

The offender is supposed to be one of the boys of the Cherry Hill gang. If he is caught the Department will do all in its power to have him punished to the full extent of the law. The penalty is three months in the county jail or a fine of $250, or both.

BODY WITHHELD FROM WIFE, a $10,000 Judgment Against the Undertaker Who Did It.

George W. Freeborn, an undertaker a 167 East 122d street, was arrested vesterday by the Sheriff on a judgment for $10,-049.15 recovered against him in an action brought by Mrs. Emma Goettel of 355 West Fifty-eighth street for withholding from her the body of her husband, William Goettel, a letter carlerr, who committed suicide on Aug. 15 last at the Mount Morris Hotel. Freeborn gave bail.

Other defendants are Henry Goettel. brother of the deceased, and Ferdinand W. Geiler, brother-in-law. They denied the allegations of the plaintiff that they conspired with the undertaker to spirit the than Senor Palma. It is understood that body away from the widow, and the case is pending as to them. Freeborn did not defend, and judgment went against him by default.

The defendants, Goettel and Geiler. ay that a brother of the plaintiff, a clergy-man named Bliss, compelled Goottel to marry his sister and himself performed the ceremony about two weeks before the

Mrs. Goettel asserts that she showed her marriage certificate to the undertaker, and told him she wanted the body sent to her house for the funeral.

INVESTED MONEY FOR LOVE. Chicago Widow Charges That She Was Swindled in "Compressed Air."

CHICAGO, Oct. 81.-Mrs. Edna Allison. widow, caused the arrest yesterday of ohn W. McMillan, president of the J. W. McMillan Company, manufacturers of compressed air apparatus, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretences. She says McMillan caused her to invest about $1,000 in the compressed air company and that in return she has received a number of documents purporting to be shares in the company. She says McMillan pre-tended that he loved her, and that she became so attached to him that she trusted came so attached to him that she trusted him to havest her money. A few days ago Mrs. Allison, after some investigation, be-came suspicious. She had received no returns for her money. She consulted Attorney Joseph O'Donnell. The result was that yesterday warrants were issued by Justice Kersten for McMillan's arrest Justice Kersten for McMillan's arres He was locked up in the East Chica venue police station on two charges of obtaining money by means of a confi-dence game, and of obtaining goods under false pretones. McMillan says his deal-ings with Mrs. Allison were all hopest, and she was perfectly willing to invest sending Homb House Courded. Peter W. Rouss, son of Charles Broadway Rouss, received a threatening letter a few days ago from the same person, it is supposed, who forwarded the clumey inferred achine to his house at 241 Park place, Brooklyn, by mail on the morning of Oct The letter was mailed at Troy, N I writer mays be was the sender of the of powder and that he was sorry it and to work. You will hear from me and, he selds. In a low days, and there could missery and floatly an apople the death to her father. The chirchest time.

PETER ROUSS THREATENED NOW. Gets Letter From Person Who Confesses

The letter was turned used a police ode of the detective separal and a police out the house of the House and the house said the and day Mr Rouse said blic has been nervous cities the female of the letter. For my part I think I am the vector of a hearthese stratck

Lieut finderdoni for Espiale

At a special meeting of Company B, Twenty-third Regiment, held at the Redford awasse armory inst night. First Lieut John D. A. Goderdonk was constituously confinated for the Captain's of the some The body of Mrs. Courge Murron Woolsey

The body of Mrs. Course Mrs.

The body of Mrs. Course Mrs.

The body of Mrs. Course Mrs.

The body of the William Favershatte suggested at the forter of the Mrs.

The case of Consequence William Forter and Mrs.

The case of Consequence William Forter and Sove it was complete to the body forter Hunt, and Jan. If, 1801. First Lacutement. Lucing the twenty-five years of services were held Mrs.

Lacutement. Lucing the twenty-five years of service to place her in a integer theatre.

William Favershatte suggested will service on the forter and Mrs.

The case of Consequence to William Favershatte suggested at the service of pany, made vacant by the election of Capt.

CANDIDATE FOR THE PRESI-DENCY OF CUBA.

He Thinks His Election Would Bring the Fulfilment of the Legitimate Aspirations of the Country-The Cuban Official Element Is Opposed to Him.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. HAVANA, Oct. 31.-Gen. Maso has issued a manifesto to the country, saying that the unavoidable duties of patriotism oblige him to present himself as a candidate for the Presidency. He adds that he has received urgent requests from all parts of the island, asking him to become a candidate, thus allowing an opportunity for the fulfilment of the legitimate aspirations of the country and genuine Cuban tradition, and also a basis on which to unite all the social forces. He save the Cubans did not go into the revolution simply to effect a change in rulers. If they had fought Spain in order to realize ends other than independence the honorable course would have been to have proclaimed it. Continuing, he says in substance, that owing to the genera mode and conduct of the military occupation the country is upset and disorder is enthroned. For these reasons the most respectable course is to admit frankly the reality of things. The republic about to be established will not be an independent State, but within the terms of the appendix to the Constitution The Cubans can be cultured people, with a stable government, and in time, perhaps, will develop into being the masters of their own destinies. Being grateful to the Americans and disposed to maintain cordial relations with them, it is not necessary to say that local institutions cannot be subject to llegitimate demands or unjust servitude for whatever reason. If Cuba is to fulfil her duties as a republic virile protest must be made against injustice, from whatever ource it may come.

It is necessary to call upon the Autonomist element, and also upon the colored race, which performed services in times of war, and which has also a strong influence for peace and order. The colored race cannot and must not be relegated to the background, but must have participation in the government. The Spaniards must also be called upon, for to their fate the country cannot be indifferent. Cuba is poor to-day, but her resources are not so scarce that it will be impossible for her to attend to the needs of the government.

At the beginning, care must be taken to tion and to strengthen necessary ones. The country is potentially very rich. Like the spider it draws its web from its own body. If affairs are judiciously managed the country can pay its way. In any treaty with the United States the firm decision of Cuba not to resign her nationality would be made clear, and this should also be set forth in response to attempts by the United States to obtain cessions. Special attention should be given to the payment of the

Gen. Maso further says that the harmony of the Executive with the people will be unbreakable.

It is said that Gen. Maso will have the support of the Autonomists and Gualberto Gomez, together with a large number of other negroes, who, while accepting Senor Palma are violently opposed to the Cuban official element which is supporting him. It is expected that this element will have an enormous advantage in the elections, owing to their being in power at present. There is a large and possibly decisive section that has not yet decided which candidate to support. Both candidates may have the support of a number of annexationists. What will decide in many cases will be personal likes and dislikes.

the manifesto was drawn up by an Autonomist. The fact that most of them of the parasite element, did all they could do to persuade Gen. Maso to accept the nomination for the Vice-Presidency seems to imply that he has their

BRONX SNEAK THIEF NABBED. He Didn't Expect to Find a Burglar Alarm Working in Daytime.

Mrs. George F. Hefteler of 638 East 138th street, sitting reading in her parlor yesterday afternoon, heard the burglar alarm connected with the front door, go off. In The Bronx they have the alarms connected even in daytime, nowadays. She stepped out into the hallway in time to catch a glimpse of the coat tails of a man who was just disappearing through the front door. Mrs. Hefteler followed. A block away, in front of the Alexander avenue police station, she succeeded in overtaking the man. He carried a valise and seemed to be in a great hurry.

What did you do in my house, young "What did you do Hefteler. man?" demanded Mrs. Hefteler. "I wasn't "Nothin'," replied the man. "I there at all. I was in the next one.

"With that he dropped the valise and ran. As it struck the ground the satchel opened, showing in it two big bunches of skeleton keys, four gold watches and a nice assortment of chains. Leteotives Lake and Courtney were standing in front of the station, and they caught eight of the contents of the value. They chased the contents of the value. They chased the fugitive and captured him. They declared him later to be a professional crock named Edward King, whose picture adorns the forms. the Logues Gallery

Theatrical Notes. Hermann Sudermann's powerful but depressing drama of "Die Heimath," which is familiar to this public in English. French and Italian translations called "Magda. and used here by Helena Modjeska, Sarah Bornbards and Eleanora Dusc, was resived at the Irving Place last evening before an approciative and deeply interested audience. The performance was excellent throughout. Hedwig Lange, in the little rôle, gave a strong and impressive im-

to her father
Charles Predictate atmosphed some charges in theatrical beckings penteriny. He will keep defer Drew at the Empire in The become in techniques at the Empire in The become in techniques of the initial part of December, extending his stock company a four in Mrs. Isaac's Deferred Calley to Bianche Bates's divises he will take Under Two Pings off the stage temperarily giving the time set assist for it at the tablesian Theatre is Beston to Virginia Harted in Alms of tid Vincentes for the Profession also said that Aprile Biased is engagement, which starts on Monday and during which size win review & Royal Patch, will be the last she will play they.

WEDDING GIFTS

Every piece of Sterling Silver made by the GORHAM Co. has the distinction that belongs to the embodiment of an original artistic idea combined with unequalled beauty of workmanship. Attention is invited to a number of new and highly attractive designs now for the first time shown.

THE GORHAM CO.

Broadway and Nineteenth Street and 21 & 23 Maiden Lane, New York

Mew Publications.

Hew Publications.

Dr.S.Weir Mitchell's New Novel "A strong, fresh, absorbing story, written out of actual life, and intricate enough to hold us to the last page." Detroit Free Press. and strong piece of literary 500 pages, workmanship." cloth, N. Y. Times. "More than a novel; a revelation of human motives and conduct under the influence of a fascinating and unscrupulous adventuress."-Beacon, Boston, Mass. The Century Co., New York.

THE HELMET Bertha Runkle's OF NAVARRE Illustrated by André Castaigne.

"Has reached the point where people are no longer reading it because it is talked about, but talking about it because they have read it."—Talcott Williams, in Book News.

"It is hard to say too much in praise of this story."-Madras (India) Times.

W. B. Howland, Publisher of the Outlook,

ELDER BOISE:

"The Elder is a mighty interesting story. The two deacons are vividly drawn. I have known just such men. 'llat' is quaint and virile and entertaining—often really humorous. The minister has a lot of good, honest human nature in him, and will evidently be a thoroughly practical man after the experiences so well told. The book ought to sell—and do good to its Price $1.50. For Sale Everywhere.

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE @ CO., 34 Union Square, New York.

FULLERTON WILL RECOVER. His Skull Was Not Fractured in the Locomotive-Automobile Collision. MINBOLA, L. I., Oct. 31.-There was a de cided improvement to-day in the condition of the three victims of the Wednesday automobile accident, who are still in the Nassau Hospital. H. B. Fullerton, the special passenger agent of the Long Island special passenger agent of the Long Island Railroad, who was the most seriously injured, regained consciousness this morning and recognized his brother and wife Mr. Fullerton has three bad scalp wounds but his skull was not fractured and he will recover. The crossing where the locomotive hit the automobile is admittedly a dangerous one. The Long Island Railroad has been anxious to depress the roadway at that point, but at a public hearing by the State Railroad Commissoners last September so many property owners opposed the idea that it was reported on adversely.

Business Rotices.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children tecthing, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, diarriges, 25c, a bottle.

MARRIDA

BURFORD - LAURENT .- On Thursday, Oct. $1, field Laurent, daughter of Thomas H. Laurent of Newark, N. J. No esrds.

DIEO.

CLYNES - A Jersey illy, N. J. on Thursday, aged 57 years.
Puneral acrylees will be held at her late real.

private. 20, 1903, at his residence, Henry C. son of fir Assault Hall and Catharine Butsen Vander burgh, late of Poughiscepsie, in the 62d year of his age Interment in Proglikecosie Burai Cemetery on Friday, Nov. 3, 1993, ou arrival of 4.36 F. M.

train from Albaro HAYPS At Sewark, N. J. at her residence on Wednesday. that $0. 1901. Cutoline Invita-widow of David A. Heyes, in the 75th year of her age Function has late scatterier. See High at Newsth N J. of Astories Nov. 2 1001 pt

Miczan the Thursday Cot St. 19th at his remwhile from the become on between allegance. For 2, 800, at half-peak - Confinger will sheet the 126 team from the televisions consenthe State of State County States of S. and States of M. M. Marriagon States Apoption of the late Section and Asser States again a State of S. M. Marriagon States Apoption of S. M. Marriagon States Apoption of S. M. Marriagon States and Apoption of S. M. Marriagon States and S. M. Marriagon

EXTY - by Madicular, that Mr ther suddenly toorning on a Chamber direct fortyles

HARPERS

A SPLENDID PRESENT

Heroines

By W. D. HOWELLS The heroines of the world's greatest novelists are told about in the easy, personal way so characteristic of all Mr. Howells' writing. There are SEVENTY full-page drawings by our best artists-Christy, Sterner, Keller, Tobin, Hutt and others. A most artistic work all through and a splendid gift for the Holidays. 2 vols. (in box), $3.75 net.

HARPER & BROTHERS Franklin Square New York

500' Renar's Life of Jesus Voltaire's Tales St. Augustine's Confessions Pascal's Thoughts PRATT, 161 6th av

E. S. STOKES SLIGHTLY BETTER. But His Physician Says His Condition

Continues to He Dangerous. Edward S. Stokes, who has been lying ill at the residence of his sister, Mrs. McNutt of 731 St. Nicholas avenue, was reported by his physician yesterday to be very much stronger although still in a dangerous condition. The news of his improvement gave rise to a story that Mr. Stokes had conceived a longing for some old wine which had been stored in his house at 200 West Neventy-minth street which has been occupied recently by Rosamond Barclay, a woman who says she is Mr Stoken's wife, and that his valet on going there discovered that licenmond flarciar, her mother and brother were nevering out. The part of the story relating to the wine was promotinged as absent by Mr Stakes a friends but a reporter who went to the Seventy-high street issue yesterday was told that the Barriers had moved out it was said that they lad gone to Youkars Meid to and Mateired in Mullais. Buryano, ten 31 Another of the day Wilde. At Sectors rate, on Medically, that Significant reduction that new Lacouring so numerous to Buffaio was committee 20. 1201. Auditority at the nature National 20 Statement in Hoffmin was statemental Marsham, prompted and of William Watson land night when tending the First of Middle and Laster Wester Notes in his 2011 year.

20. 1201. Auditority was included with the statement of the stateme

Philips II. Morgan, the indicated & M. percent services at not take foundation. The third services being and in the continual countries of the profit of the foundation of the factories of the factories of the factories.